

November 2018 Edition

Our newsletter is now digital!

After consulting with Friends in Canberra Regional Meeting, we decided to try a digital version of the newsletter. This allows readers to select what they want to read, by clicking on links which go to the full version of articles or to images. The links are to Mail Chimp, which hosts the files. This is the first edition, and the newsletter will evolve over time. Your feedback is welcome.

Michael Searle writes about the experience of door knocking in a good cause, in this case the STOP ADANI campaign. Read more

This is Ben Goossen, a visiting Mennonite from Boston who spoke to CRM friends about our "cousins" the Mennonites, on Sunday 16 September. For a report, click here

WE HAVE A TERRIFIC WEBSITE!

Visit us at:

www.actquakers.org.au

Find days times and locations for Meeting for Worship go to:

<http://actquakers.org.au/meeting-for-worship/>

Would you like to contribute to the newsletter?
We welcome contributions of around 300 words, and images. Prior consent is needed for photos of named persons.

Please email to susanl.rockliff@interno.de.on.net

Here is Reg Naulty's review of Michael Pollan's book How To Change Your Mind. The New Science Of Psychedelics. Read review

Friends gathered at the Old Parliament House on 16 October to join the Canberra Convergence to support the #KidsOffNauru campaign. Report here

Friends Visit to the Recycling Centre

Friends visited the ACT Recycling Centre on October 2. It was a very good thing to do and a very confronting thing to do. When you walk into the education room, you look through a big window onto a huge shed with mountains of stuff. Our stuff! The staff were interesting to listen to and answered all our questions. The room is full of things to look at and it exceeded all our expectations. I was a bit surprised to find out that there is still a large percentage of every person's rubbish bin that could be recycled. Seeing all the stuff just made me a little more committed to not acquiring packaging in the first place. It's wonderful that we try and recycle so much in the ACT, but all that recycling costs money. I think visiting the Recycling Centre is something worth doing often and will organize another visit in 2019. Ronis Chapman.

Photo of Erik Jochimsen at the Recycling Centre

Our friend Wilma Davidson, who is the AYM Children and JYF Co-ordinator, recently visited North Korea with a group of about 10 Quakers. She has included this in Generation Q, which you can read here.

Small noise in Meeting
Brings me back from daydreaming.
Thank you!

Haiku by Stephen Hodgkin

Copyright © 2018 Canberra Regional Meeting, All rights reserved.
You are receiving this email because you opted in via our website.

Email: RMCanberraClerk@quakersaustralia.info

Our mailing address is:

Canberra Regional Meeting PO Box 6063
O'Connor, ACT 2602
Australia

