

Canberra Regional Meeting of Quakers

Website Privacy Policy

If You Contact Our Meeting Through Our Website

If you contact the Meeting via the Website you can reasonably and confidently expect that Canberra Regional Meeting of Quakers will not use your personal information for other than the expressed purpose of fulfilling your newsletter subscription request and/or providing you information about Canberra Regional Meeting. It will not be used for any other purpose.

If you contact the Meeting via the Website you can reasonably and confidently expect that your personal information will be held securely and confidentially by designated Officers of the Meeting and will not be provided to any third party for any reason.

If You Visit Our Website

We use website analytics to track visits to our website. We use this information to measure the performance of our website. The only data we collect via these analytics are the total number of visits within certain time frames, pages viewed and broad geographical information relating to our visitors. These analytics cannot track the identity of any individual visitor or provide other personal information about them.

If you have any questions or concerns relating to your privacy, please contact the Web Manager:
RMCanberraWeb@quakersaustralia.info